MISSIONARY MOMENTS

MILITARY APPRECIATION MONTH
 BY CRU MINISTRY

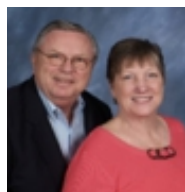

May is designated National Military Appreciation Month and we, as a nation, are given the opportunity to publicly demonstrate our gratitude to those who serve and have served in the armed forces. Our service members work tirelessly in support of our country, moreover risking their lives and leaving their families behind for months at a time. This is a job they love, a job they chose, and a job they are proud of. So how do we show true appreciation for their sacrifice? Here are tips for honoring our troops:

- » Say "Thank you!" – Encouraging words can really build someone up!
 - » Attend a military salute service and invite a veteran friend.
 - » Do you know someone who is deployed? Offer a helping hand to their spouse. Even small gestures of kindness such as bringing a meal, picking up their kids from school, or mowing their lawn say "thank you" in big ways.
 - » Beyond the holiday, resource a ministry for military/veterans at your church. We are truly grateful for our service members, and we owe you a debt we will never fully realize.
- We thank you, we love you, and we pray for you. May the Lord fill you with His peace and bless you beyond measure.
