MISSIONARY MOMENTS

<http://www.ddmissionary.com/>

Our History:

D&D was founded in 1949, by two single ladies. Alma Doering spent most of her life in missionary service to the Congo. She knew first-hand the sacrifice that missionary families often made to serve others and she also knew that missionary families often need time for mental and spiritual refreshment. So she dreamed of a place in sunny St. Petersburg, Florida, where these "soldiers of the Cross" could come and get the rest and healing they need.

Stella Dunkelberger worked for a mission agency in the Philadelphia area and often opened her home to missionary families in need of housing while home on furlough. She, too, was aware of the need of missionary families for a time of healing and restoration before returning to the ministry God has called them to.

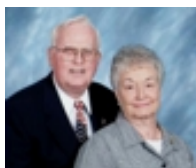

In 1929, the two ladies met and realized they shared the same vision for some day building a place for "missionaries of the cross" to live and rest while on deputation, furlough, or during the first year of retirement after a life-time of service on a foreign field.

In a typical year, more than 150 missionary families who minister around the world will call D&D their "home" for at least a little while.
