MISSIONARY MOMENTS

Teachers Making a Difference

(Southeast Asian) An IMB worker in Southeast Asia has an opportunity to teach at a local school. Because the country has five national religions (Christianity included), local schools are required to have a teacher from each faith if there are enough students enrolled. When she and her national partner arrived at the school, they were amazed to have 60 students in the class. The national partner spoke for an hour, clearly sharing the Gospel with the students. When she finished, asking if there was anyone who wanted to commit their lives to Christ, 40 students stood up. Thanks to gifts through the Cooperative Program, Christian workers are able to go and share the truth boldly.

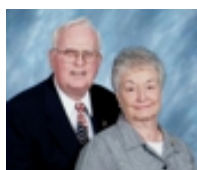

One accomplishment and fulfillment that comes through using our money is in helping the helpless. The offering you give through your church helps minister to people in need.
