MISSIONARY MOMENTS

INTERVARSITY

INTERVARSITY CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP/USA

www.intervarsity.org

College students are thronging back to campus—eager, bright-eyed freshmen; experienced, perceptive upperclassmen. With these students come all the expectations, fears, and anxieties that you'd anticipate at the beginning of the new school year. Anyone who has been to college likely remembers the emotions students encounter. But, by most accounts, students today are facing increased pressures and are reporting more feelings of anxiety. Some students may not be prepared to handle their anxieties; for many, the academic, social, and personal pressures will only increase as the year progresses, leaving them overwhelmed.

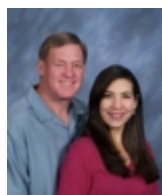

The campus is our mission: InterVarsity loves students and faculty, and we love seeing God transform and heal them by his love. It's this love for people in every corner of the campus, that drives us to build witnessing communities where people can find friendship, peace that only comes from the Lord, tools to navigate life's challenges, and where those who need additional care, can be directed to resources for further help.
