MISSIONARY MOMENTS

Please pray for these missionaries this week:

Jim Sims was a fireman in Alabama before the Lord redirected his path. "I had a great life, living the American dream, and then God said, 'I got another dream for you.' I just couldn't pursue the old dream anymore," he said. Jim and his wife, Mallory, were scared about raising their children in areas hostile to Christians, but they have learned that God is in control and knows the best plan for their family. They also witness the difficult road that many must walk in order to follow Christ. Their friend "M" faces daily persecution but persists in serving Christ. The Simses have sacrificed their personal dreams so that men like "M" may be saved. The Cooperative Program enables us to partner with more than 45,000 churches to make Christ known.

Hebrews 10:23-25

Perhaps many of us would consider giving more seriously if we were sensitive to the nearness of the coming Day of the Lord. This Scripture instructs us to live and give for the benefit of others.

Your generous giving helps support these ministries. Thank you.
